PACKAGING METHODS & PROHIBITED GOODS FROM TRANSPORTATION

4. Packaging methods & prohibited goods
5. Settling of claims
6. Glossary of terms

CARGUS S.R.L., as a courier services provider, wants to ensure that packages collected from its customers arrive in perfect condition at their destination.

Before pick-up, each sender is responsible for checking each shipment to ensure that it complies with the "Packing Methods" set out below.

Cargus provides customers with operational materials and packaging (flyers, envelopes, thermic label, etc.) via the website <https://.consumabile.cargus.ro>, at the rates and under the conditions specified on this website.

Recommendations and packaging solutions to prepare shipments:

- The size and type of packaging must be consistent with the contents of the shipment;
- The outside of the packaging must be strong enough not to collapse due to the weight of the content;
- Labelling shipments with the label "Fragile" is not a substitute for proper packaging;
- To prevent the content from moving inside the package during transport, the customer must ensure that sufficient protective material (paper, bubble wrap, etc.) is used for packing;
- Fragile goods must be placed in the centre of the parcel, without the items contained being in direct contact with each other;
- Adhesive tape must be used to seal the cartons.

Atypical shipments (goods) with non-rectangular shapes:

- Round shaped goods (e.g. drums, barrels, etc.) - must be tied and protected on the pallet to prevent them from shifting (e.g. with wooden feet);
- Heavy coils - must be secured to the pallet using wooden blocking, as well as 2 (two) straps placed horizontally and 2 (two) straps placed vertically or with unbreakable plastic tape;
- Industrial equipment - must be transported in a crate or securely fastened to pallet, covered with hardboard and with protective edges;
- Liquids/fuels - must be completely removed from the equipment before the goods are picked up for transport;
- Heavy pieces - must be loaded on a wide base to prevent instability during transport.

Any complaint must be made to the attention of the Customer Service Department.

If the loss or partial damage of a shipment delivered to the recipient is found at the time of delivery, the consignee and CARGUS courier shall draw up a Record of Findings. Otherwise, it is presumed that the ordered service was performed correctly and the shipment was delivered to the destination in good condition.

a) The claim can be addressed both by the sender and by the recipient, within 6 (six) months (calendar), calculated from the date of submission of the package, by the following communication methods:

- in writing, by email (at sesizari@cargus.ro), by any postal service or by sending the complaint to the registered office of the Provider or to any fixed access/contact points served by staff;

The claim must be documented by the claimant providing all details of the event complained of and by attaching only evidence of the event complained of, contact details (including an e-mail address, in so far as the sending/transmission of the claim is made by electronic mail or postal service) and of bank details if, in case of a successful claim, the claimant requests the payment of compensation into a bank account.

b) the time limit for settling a claim shall be no more than 3 (three) calendar months, calculated from the date of filing the claim.

c) If the claim proves to be justified, the Provider will grant the compensation within a maximum of 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date of the favourable completion of the analysis of the complaint, without exceeding, however, the period of 3 (three) calendar months mentioned above.

Further details on the mechanism for settling complaints regarding the performance of the transportation service can be found on the Cargus website at: <https://www.cargus.ro/conditii-generale-de-furnizare-a-serviciilor-postal/>

If a shipment declared lost was found 1 (one) year after the payment of the compensation granted to the Beneficiary, the goods shall become CARGUS property. The time limit for filing the writ of summons is 1 (one) year and runs from the date of submission of the package; CARGUS will not consider complaints that do not comply with this procedure or if the payment of the ordered service has not been made. The Beneficiary may also not deduct from the related charges due for the services provided by CARGUS an amount that would compensate for the loss claimed.
